

Write-up/write-off

Write-ups and write-offs are purely accounting processes. They have no influence on the contractually defined payment plan or open due dates. The book value of the loan is written off or written up.