

Rollover

Loans that have not been repaid in full at the end of the term, can be rolled over easily and quickly in Jabatix. In this case, either the current interest tranche is extended or a new interest tranche is created for the extension period. Finally, a new credit rating check is performed for all borrowers and on the basis of this, a new decision is made and documented for the loan in question.